This Society exists to aid Gospel workers by money grants in Bible Lands, but it does not initiate missions nor employ agents.

These Lands include the following countries:—

GREECE, wherein by mission enterprise an Evangelical Greek Church has been founded, which yet needs foster-help.

MACEDONIA, so famous in apostolic story.

ASIA MINOR, in which American missionaries for 90 years have won noble results.

PERSIA, once covered by Nestorian Churches, long since blotted out by Muslim conquest.

ARABIA, the cradle of Islam, and now entered by Christ's Missioners.

EGYPT, the land where for over seventy years the American U.P.M. has been greatly prospered of God. Finally

PALESTINE, SYRIA, and CYPRUS, countries laden with the richest memories of Christ and His Apostles.

Our Funds are used for sustaining native churches, evangelisation, orphanages, educational, medical, book-distribution work, &c., provided that the objects and labourers be under some recognised and responsible supervision.

Jottings.

Moslem Mentality.

THIS is a book by L. Levonian, B.A., Dean of the School of Religion, Athens; formerly of Constantinople and Aintab; Fellow of Woodbrooke, England. It is the outcome of personal experience and observation, having served as Professor of Turkish Literature for 14 years in one of the Asia Minor colleges, and taught in a Moslem Government High School, where all the other tutors and pupils were Moslems. Much of the information is drawn from Moslem sources which is otherwise inaccessible to Western readers.

The book is published by Allen and Unwin, Ltd., and is subsidised by the Bible Lands Missions' Aid Society from its Moslem Work Fund, which enables it to be issued at 5s., and can also be obtained from our office, 76 Strand, at that price, or post free 5s. 6d.

St. Paul and His Lord.

THIS booklet was compiled by one of our Missionary Associates in Greece. It could justly be entitled "The Gospel of St. Paul," being quotations from Paul's Epistles concerning Jesus Christ without any added words. We plan to publish it in various languages of the Near East (Arabic, Armenian, Greek, etc.) as soon as funds permit, and shall be glad to receive special contributions for this purpose. Friends desiring to distribute can obtain copies from our office at 1s. for 25, or 3s. 6d. per 100.

Blankets, Old and New Clothes.

DURING the year we have received 441 packages containing 6,810 articles of clothing. These have been sent to the various distributing centres in the Near East. We also purchased 2,000 blankets and 1,000 women's long jackets (second-hand) for the earthquake sufferers.

We are always glad to receive gifts of old clothing, new garments, especially children's and babies' underwear, also used Christmas, birthday, and other picture cards. Parcels should not be sent to the office, but to

Annual Report, 1927-1928.

WITH gratitude to our Heavenly Father we record the passing of another year. It has been one with difficulties at home and abroad, but "the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth," and we have found, as the apostle Paul declared, "that the things which happened have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel."

The members of the Committee greatly appreciate the continued confidence of so many friends who entrust them with their gifts and make them their almoners, also they gratefully acknowledge the wide sphere of labour entrusted to them by the Lord of the Harvest, both for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom and for the relief of suffering and destitute ones.

FROM ALBANIA TO ARABIA, FROM BULGARIA TO THE SUDAN,

the sick have been healed, the destitute fed, the orphans cared for and the Gospel has been preached. In Albania one mission station, with its Gospel Meetings, Sunday School and Day School at Kortcha, and the Kyrias Girls Boarding School at Tirano, are two centres of Light in this dark Moslem Country.

Macedonia is now divided between Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece. At the Native Pastors' Conference in Bulgaria there were eight pastors present who had been won for the Saviour at the Macedonian Village Church of Bansko, and are now preaching the Gospel in various parts of the country.

Used Christmas Cards.

For 30 years we have received and dispatched large quantities of used Birthday, Christmas and other picture cards.

A small slip with a text in the native language is pasted on the card and distributed as rewards in the Schools. One Sunday three boys had been robbing an orchard, and on returning met some girls coming from school displaying their picture cards. The boys offered apples in exchange for the cards, but the girls answered and said "No, you come to school next Sunday and you will get one for nothing."

They did and continued to attend the school, and one of those boys is to-day a pastor, and was at the Conference mentioned above. Nothing is really little when done for the Kingdom.

Bulgaria.

The Society is particularly interested in Bulgaria. Mission work in that country is practically a child of the Bible Lands Missions' Aid Society, for it was the outcome of a recommendation from the Committee signed by the Earl of Shaftesbury as President, and Lord Kinnaird as Treasurer, together with a promise to support two missionaries for three years if the American Board would undertake mission work among the Bulgarians.

To-day there is a strong Evangelical Union of Churches aggressively engaged in publishing the "Good Tidings."

Serbia.

The Society, in conjunction with the Scripture Gift Mission, printed the Gospel of St. John in the modern Serb language, which has been readily received by the people. The Gospel of St. Matthew is now in the printer's hands, and our hope is that four Gospels will be ready for a special distribution campaign next year.

The Orphanage at Karmenitza has developed by the addition of a training centre for village girls. The King has taken a special interest in this enterprise and plans are in progress to establish other centres. An effort is also being made to reach the university students in Belgrade.

Greece.

The home of refugees, probably as many refugees as the total pre-war population. These new-comers—Greeks and Armenians—have altered the whole tone of religious life. Formerly three churches, Athens, Piræus and Salonica, with two out-stations, was the sum total of evangelical effort; now there are ten additional church centres, most of them striving, in spite of their poverty, to erect their own church buildings. Our Society has been able to help four of these churches.

KOKINIA, in the midst of a refugee camp of 50,000 Armenians.

ATHENS, second church, for Greeks from Smyrna, Pontus and Ordo.

SOUNGRO, a smaller Armenian camp near Athens.

VODRITZA, near ancient Berea, peopled by refugees from Gurum; of peculiar interest to the Society, as our Secretary took an active part in their rescue during 1922.

Salonica.

The influx of refugees has also caused the re-establishment in Greece of the Anatolia College; first, in a hired building, which was afterwards purchased and added to, our Society providing the money and the students the labour in erecting "London Lodge," which was their first dormitory, and now houses the library and chemistry department.

A recent visitor says: "I had almost given up my faith in mission work until I saw what the religion of Jesus Christ was doing for these boys, most of them refugees whose parents, if living, have lost everything."

The Industrial Farm has become a wonderful institution, where village lads are trained in agriculture, dairy and fruit culture. The start made by Dr. House, with a handful of boys in 1905, has now grown to accommodate nearly 100 lads, learning modern methods in place of the primitive ways in vogue in South-East Europe. A traveller passing through Salonica visited the farm and writes: "I was amazed at all I saw, and was told of the big share your Society has taken in the enterprise. The pedigree cattle, sheep and pigs were wonderful. The boys have a great opportunity of learning under truly Christian influence."

Athens.

The Training School for Pastors is another migration from Turkey. The various theological seminaries are now closed; the Armenians are scattered; it is therefore necessary to follow them; and as so many pastors were martyred, young men must be trained, otherwise they will be without religious teachers.

The Society has undertaken the special care of refugee pastors, not only in Greece, but in Syria and Cyprus. They, in common with their congregations, have lost everything, and until the people are again on their feet, they are unable to give much towards their minister's salary. The Greek Evangelical Union of Churches has four such pastors. The Moderator writes: "Considering the prevailing financial distress among the refugees one cannot expect much from them. There is no one we can look to but your Society."

Turkey.

Two Armenian congregations are still remaining in Constantinople; the Bible Society and the American Mission also maintain their headquarters in the city, but throughout Turkey proper mission work is sadly restricted. Here and there workers are simply "holding the fort," praying and hoping for the new day to dawn. A missionary of 30 years experience writes: "the problem facing mission work in Turkey is interesting enough, but it can be put in a sentence or two. It is, how to do the work of a mission under the restrictions enforced by the present Government, that in no hospital or school may any teaching of Christianity be done 'directly or indirectly.' Thus far the answer has been: 'We must live Christ and by personal influence commend Him to the people.' This has been accepted with surprising enthusiasm, especially by the younger missionaries. It does not seem to have been sufficiently realised that a normal mission has all that personal influence and witness (without which all is naught), besides having the medical and institutional opportunities of preaching and teaching.

Religious Freedom.

The Turkish Government claims that it stands for religious liberty and freedom of the conscience, but practically it is where it was before. It has stuck in the ruts of the old Moslem fanaticism while it seems to have liberated itself from all religious sanctions. At present no moral power is at hand among the Turks to continue the journey, but there can be no doubt that in course of time the logic of circumstances will cause them to look around and find the moral dynamics from outside. Then the quiet personal influence of the Christian will have its chance."

Persia.

In the northern section, with an intensely bigoted population, it is surprising that Scriptures are bought, and definite acceptations of Jesus Christ are known. There are no restrictions, as in Turkey, but the fanaticism of the priests causes tremendous opposition against witnessing for the Master.

Syria.

Again the incoming Armenian refugees have brought with them strong Evangelical principles, and wherever they settle there is at once a religious community. Aleppo has two Armenian churches, one of which is in the centre of the Refugee Camp, and has developed in a marvellous manner. It is quite the usual thing to have 200 or more at a prayer meeting, and the week night service brings a crowded congregation, even with groups of people around the door and windows. Truly the foundation was well laid in Turkey, and now in their impoverished circumstances they "remember Jesus Christ, and with joy and gladness bring others into the hallowed fellowship."

In Aleppo there is another migrated college. The Central Turkey College, under the able leadership of Dr. Merrill, has transplanted its roots from Aintab, somewhat slower in growth to Anatolia, but with many opportunities, less favoured in position and circumstances, but full of energy and hope for the future.

Opposition.

Considerable unrest has been experienced throughout Syria and Palestine. The first intimation of anything serious was a cable bidding us to withdraw our colporteur from Damascus. As we do not employ agents it was evidently a mistake, but it gave the hint that a storm was brewing. The name of the Bible Lands Missions Aid Society was dragged in by the fact that two very popular books in Arabic, "El-Khindy" and "Rasulat d'aleel," are the Society's publications and bear their imprint.

Whether the reports of Turkey squeezing out the missionaries by making it difficult to work excited the Moslems in Syria to attempt the same procedure is uncertain, but the numerous complaints and flaming newspaper articles bear unmistakable signs of being the work of wirepullers, the traps laid and the tricks resorted to, all prove that a widespread plot was being engineered to compel the Governments to curtail the efforts of the Missionaries and their native helpers, but the Lord took care of His servants and discomfited the enemy, the result being that the people everywhere have become more sympathetic to the Missionary and his message.

Palestine.

Amid the troubles that have been running through the land it has been good to read of Jews accepting Jesus Christ as their Messiah and definite conversion among Moslems. "The Lord's arm is not shortened that it cannot save"; cheering news is also to hand from Nazareth and Tiberius.

At Haifa the British Jews' Mission has met with wonderful encouragement. At Jaffa the Walker Arnot Memorial School still maintains a bold witness for Jesus Christ, and Jerusalem reports many tokens of Divine blessing. All the above receive grants from the Society.

Beyond Jordan.

The country of the two tribes and a half, fertile land but sparsely populated. Sons of Esau yet they too need the Gospel. The Society's interest is in the work at Amman and Kerak. Several villages are clamouring for teachers, and these half-wild, half-civilised people, promise buildings and food if they are sent. To enter Arabia may also be possible from Kerak. We watch with prayerful interest this attempt to enter the Home of Islam.

Egypt.

The Armenian Church in Alexandria has received a great spiritual uplift. The Pastor is encouraged and many have been added to the Church. A new Armenian community has been organised at Port Said and Cairo.

The Evangelistic work along the Nile Valley has been crowned with success. Many villages have been reached by means of the Mission Boat. The Pressley Memorial School and the Boys' College at Assiout report increased attendances and plead for more scholarships. The Egyptian Native Church is now responsible for the Sudan work as their Foreign Mission effort.

Sudan.

The new boat has proved a great help. Direct communication with Dolieb Hill, 14 days journey south of Khartoum, has enabled the missionaries to penetrate further southward, until an entry into Abyssinia, by way of the White Nile, seems probable, and a door of opportunity into that strange country appears to be opening.

Arabia.

The great closed land, the stronghold of Islam, so fanatical that none but pious Moslems may approach the sacred cities of Mecca and Medina. The Keith Falconer Hospital, at Aden, in the south, stands as a witness to the love of Christ in the ministry of healing.

On the Persian Gulf the Arabian Mission occupies the open ports of Muscat, Bahrein and Busrah, while the native chief of Kuwait welcomes the missionaries and gives every encouragement in the work of the Hospital.

Mesopotamia (Iraq).

With the close of the war this great country was opened to the Gospel. An off-shoot of the Arabian Mission has undertaken the responsibility and under the title of the United Mission has opened stations at Baghdad and Mosul. Itineraries have been made through the surrounding districts, which show that the people are friendly and well disposed to the Message.

Thus the Society has been privileged to assist in these many countries, to these many peoples of many tongues, and with gratitude to our Heavenly Father, the Lord of the Harvest.

RELIEF AND REFUGEE WORK.

Harvests last year were poor in several countries of the Near East, causing much distress and unemployment. The Bible Lands Colonies passed through difficult times. Katerina bravely struggled against adverse circumstances, but have added to their church building a day school for the village. Karageorgevitch was hard hit by rain spoiling the crops just before the time of reaping, but they too have succeeded in building schools. They have also shown their gratitude to the Bible Lands' Missions' Aid Society by giving to them a building for Child Welfare and First Aid work. Vodritza, near to Berea, scarcely harvested enough food to sustain life. Unfavourable circumstances have been their lot. They were buffeted about and wandered for four years before the Bible Lands' Missions' Aid Society helped them to settle. Sedes, the first assisted colony, with five central villages and several smaller ones grouped around each, is now self-supporting. The Society of Friends, continuing a general oversight of medical work, started by Bible Lands, especially in teaching the villages protective measures against malaria. The challenge made at the last annual meeting to double any grant made in response to the League of Nations appeal towards the Syrian Settlement scheme was met by a vote by the committee of £1,000 gift and £1,000 loan. The amount for the redemption of the promise, however, does not appear in the Society's books, it being sent direct to the League of Nations.

THE SOCIETY'S OPHANAGE at the foot of Mount Olympus has sustained the loss of some 200 acres of land by the squatting of a large group of refugees. The Government, however, has made some compensation by giving permission for 300 acres of forest land to be cultivated. The boys are making good progress in lessons and industrial work; their conduct and character is praiseworthy.

Recently an Orthodox Greek bishop sent a donation to the funds, stating he had one of our boys under observation during the holiday season, and was so pleased at his behaviour and Christian life that he felt he must send a gift.

THE AGED WOMEN'S HOME is another venture entirely supported by the Bible Lands' Missions Aid Society. It is the only home for aged Armenian widows. The first house proved too small, and a removal became necessary. Inquiries for admission come from all parts of Syria. The latest arrivals include eight old decrepit women from Central Turkey. Here may they spend life's eventide in peace, and under the kindly care of Miss Frearson, may they patiently wait the passing through the "Valley of the Shadow."

Greece.

Besides the regular relief work and assistance granted to help industries, the Orphans claim a large share of the Society's funds.

One special effort should be mentioned. In all the Refugee Camps, huts and shacks built of odds and ends of timber abound, but the worst accommodation is that provided by weather-worn tents. The Society undertook to build sufficient houses to replace all the tents in Soungro. One friend generously supplied the funds for two rows of houses.

Syria.

The French Government has promised considerate help to the Armenians in connection with the League of Nations settlement scheme. Medical work in the camps is still essential and in providing a maternity nurse the Society is doing work of supreme importance. The industrial work under the supervision of Miss Francis employs nearly 300 young women, mostly from the camps, and many rescued from harems.

Palestine.

All is not well with the Zionist movement; smaller numbers of Jews are arriving and those leaving the country almost balance any increase that might have been expected. The Jewish population is practically the same as the previous year. There is much land that might be cultivated, but very few know anything of agriculture. The trades are governed by the law of "supply and demand," consequently the continuous stream of immigrants has been greater than the labour market could assimilate. The Government has done much to relieve unemployment by road making and mending. It is also hoped that the new harbour at Haifa will give employment to a large number of willing workmen. Bible Lands money for the relief of destitute Jews is mainly used at Haifa and Jerusalem.

Earthquake.

The whole of Christendom was alarmed at the reports of a serious earthquake. The Government buildings on the Mount of Olives, substantially built by the Germans before the war, were damaged, the dome on the Temple area developed a serious crack, while in the villages there was much destruction. Upon receipt of the sad news the Committee sent a cable to Haifa informing Dr. Rohold that money was following. He therefore set off on horseback immediately, distributing relief to as many villages as he could reach. Our good friend Mr. Blatchford was the only non-official appointed by the Government to undertake bread distribution.

Beyond the Borders.

EASTWARD.—Armenians, Chaldeans, Nestorians and others driven eastward during the days of persecution and deportation are to be found around Mosul and Baghdad. Several grants have been sent to relieve their several necessities, as well as assistance for girls rescued from Arabs.

WESTWARD.—France has opened the doors for the Armenians under a labour scheme and large numbers of orphans have been satisfactorily placed. The Society is assisting in the oversight of these young people, and also in religious care to protect them adopting French infidelity.

Census.

It is impossible to give exact figures, but from authenticated sources the following approximate totals may be given:—

Greek refugees from Smyrna, Pontus and Black Sea now residing in Greece, have probably doubled the former population.

Armenians in Bulgaria	22,000	Mesopotamia	...	...	6,784
Greece	...	Cyprus	...	...	2,500
Syria	...	Assyrian & other refugees	...	...	29,000
	91 500
	140,000

Thus the great need in the Near East is not so acute. There is still much distress and the orphans must be supported until they become self-supporting. We greatly appreciate all you have done and beg of you to help us to help them until this great task is done.
