Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Arabic or Persian, written on a page with horizontal lines. The text is arranged in approximately 15 lines, starting from the top left and moving downwards. The script is dense and fluid, with many loops and flourishes. The page is otherwise blank, with a light beige background and a faint red horizontal line near the top.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a form of shorthand or a specific dialect. The text is arranged in several vertical columns, starting from the right side of the page and moving left. The characters are highly stylized and interconnected, characteristic of a shorthand system. The columns contain approximately 10-12 characters each, with some characters appearing to be variations of a few basic forms.
